

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR INTERN AT SALES AND MARKETING DEPARTMENT

- Candidate must possess or is currently pursuing a Diploma or Bachelor's Degree, Marketing, Communication, Business Administrative, Psychology, International Business, or equivalent .
- Candidates with the drive and determination to succeed are encouraged to apply.
- Experiences sales professional in the same industry encourage to apply (1-3 years' experience)
- Strong Interpersonal & Communication Skills
- Fluent in both written & spoken in English and Bahasa Malaysia
- Result oriented, customer oriented and able to work independently.
- Have good understanding of project and able to connect to professionals on online platforms example: LinkedIn
- Team player, Creative, think on your feet
- Highly self-motivated individual, dynamic with pleasant personality. Ability to work under pressure and meet target
- Candidates must be confident to speak to decision makers like GMs, Head of Departments and Division Managers.
- Candidates must be aggressive in nature and a "go getter".
- Strong Leadership qualities will be an added advantage.
- Working in teams will help interns develop tolerance and team spirit attitude to ensure project is a success.
- Interns will be able to increase their knowledge and understanding of business-related environments while building confidence at the same time.
- Interns will be able to attend the conference or workshop and meet business related decision makers
- Interns will be able to increase their knowledge and understanding of business-related environments while building confidence at the same time.
- Working in teams will help interns develop tolerance and team spirit attitude to ensure project is a success
- 5 Internship position(s) for duration of 3-6 months or more.

Benefits: -

- Allowance between RM 1,000 - RM 1,200
- 5 working days (Monday – Friday), 8.30am – 5.00 pm
- Hands on Training will be provided
- Easy access and near public transport (KL Sentral –LRT /MRT/KTM)
- New project every 2-3 months